ECHOES FROM LONG AGO

STORY OF SCENES ATTENDING CLOSE OF CIVIL WAR

Twenty-four years ago next month the most gigantic war ever waged up to that time came to a close by the surrender of the defeated forces. Mr. Henry M. Warner of 145 South Pacific Ave., who with his wife is living in Glendale, came out here from Spencer, Mass. In the last number of the home paper, the Spencer Leader, which Mr. Warner receives regularly, there are published two letters written from Washington, D. C., by Rev. Samuel May to a relative in Spencer, describing the grand review of the victorious Union army on May 23 and 24, 1865. The first day's review was of the Army of the Potomac under Gen. Grant and the second that of Gen. Sherman, which had marched from Atlanta, Ga., to Savannah and thence up through South Carolina, North Carolina and Virginia. The letters follow:

Dear R. I. have seen the first day's Grand Review, every particle of it. For an entire six hours the troops were passing—half-past nine to half-past three—marching in files of twenty men, double ranks, whether cavalry or infantry. It has been so vast that I have at the moment but a very general, vague idea of what I have seen, though there is a most vivid impression on my mind of something perfectly amazing. I was told by a gentleman connected with the N. Y. Tribune (just before the procession appeared) that twenty-one miles of troops were to march past today. I could not credit the story at all, but now that I have seen it, I do not think it much exaggerated. Allowing that they marched three and one-half miles an hour, that would make exactly twenty-one miles. Taking out occasional pauses, and long intervals between the several corps, I do not doubt that they marched three miles an hour, and that would make eighteen miles of troops, and remember that they were in ranks of twenty men.

First came 10,000 cavalry, but before naming the procession I ought to say that E. obtained for me, through the kindness of friends, a ticket to stand, $4, next adjoining the chief stand, on which were the President, Cabinet, the Reviewing Generals, etc., and I was most fortunate.

CALLED ON SAD ERRAND

Rev. J. F. Corbin of 600 S. Adams was cabled to El Paso, Texas, Wednesday, by news of the death of his son-in-law, Dr. H. F. Wickman, at Chihuahua, Mexico. The body arrived in El Paso last night and will be brought to Santa Ana, the home of Dr. Wickman's parents, for burial next Monday. Rev. Corbin will bring back with him his daughter and her two little girls, aged 2 and 4 years. Dr. Wickman was in Chihuahua for several years as physician for a large smelting plant. He had recently piloted his people through a severe flu epidemic and was greatly beloved for his untiring care of them and attention to their needs. His wife and the little daughters went to El Paso last September, intending to join him in Chihuahua, but she was unable to obtain a passport, the Mexican government opposing the entry of women to that distracted country, especially if accompanied by children. The doctor had visited them, however, just a week before his death, and seemed in his usual health. An acute attack of indigestion and intestinal trouble laid him low immediately after his return, resulting in death.

PREACHER AND EDITOR

NEW YORKER NOW VISITING IN GLENDALE PRESENTS THIS UNUSUAL COMBINATION

A Presbyterian minister in full force and effect for 28 years, editor of a country weekly newspaper for 20 of them and a slightly reduced in size replica of the late Theodore Roosevelt—this is in brief the striking personality of a guest in the home of Louis Sipple, 1239 E. Harvard, Rev. L. Wm. Hones, editor of the Sullivan County Review, published at Roscoe, N. Y., 124 miles west of New York City. He was an entertaining caller at the Evening News office last evening and related some of his experiences. He took the paper when it was about to expire and has built it up till it is now an outstanding feature of Sullivan county. He worked hard at his dual occupation for 20 years with never a vacation, so when early in the year his son,

COMMUNITY SING

HOLLYWOOD SINGERS SHOW BEST "ATTENTION" AND WIN CONTEST BY 3 POINTS

An audience which completely filled the High School Auditorium in spite of bleak, threatening weather Thursday evening, testified to the general interest in the Community Singing contest between the choruses of Glendale and Hollywood, set for that evening. When the director, Mr. Kirchoffer, of Hollywood, called the audience to order and addressed it, he explained how seriously the weather had interfered with the plans of the visiting singers, that deluging rains had been falling in Hollywood which had made autoing unsafe and prevented many from attempting the journey because they were so sure the contest would be called off. Seventy-five braved the elements, however, and were triumphantly escorted to reserved seats when they arrived. The judge from Hollywood did not arrive and the Hollywood singers graciously advised the choosing of three judges from Glendale the choice falling upon Miss Virginia E. Graeff of Cleveland, who is a guest in Glendale, Mr. Edmund R. Shank and Mrs. Charles Parker. Owing to a misunderstanding about the cars, Miss Graeff did not reach the hall until the first two songs had been sung and Mrs. Dora Gibson acted in her stead for those numbers.

Prof. Kirchoffer in his brief introductory talk made the surprising statement that the contest then impending was the first of the kind to be held west of Chicago. He also referred to the fact that the east is ahead of us in taking up the community sing idea.

The Hollywood singers were segregated on the south side of the hall the Glendale vocalists filling the

A progressive birthday celebration was the happy experience of Wilma Kulp, the eleven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kulp of 1211 East Wilson Ave. On Sunday fourteen friends from Eagle Rock were entertained at the Kulp home and on Monday there was a family dinner party and a birthday cake which the little girl made herself, for it is the doctrine of the Kulp family that a celebration means doing things for somebody else. The birthday also included a candy treat for Wilma's schoolmates, the candy having been made by her sister who chose this way of participating in the festival.

RETURNS TO BUSINESS

CLARENCE KLAMM RE-ESTABLISHES HIMSELF AT BROADWAY AND ISABEL

Clarence Klamm, whom Glendale has been glad to welcome as a sailor on his occasional furloughs, and who was discharged from service about two months ago, has renewed his lease on the store he formerly occupied at Broadway and Isabel and will return next week to his old occupation of optician and jeweler. He is putting in a full line of watches, clocks, novelties in jewelry, etc., and will be a welcome addition to the ranks of Glendale business men. He was on the U. S. S. Beaver which plied up and down the coast during the war as a submarine tender and which was about to cross the seas when the armistice was signed. He says he would not have missed his naval experience for a great deal and that it was of immense benefit to his health.

MYSTERIOUS AUTO FIRE

The clang, clang of a fire truck which citizens have learned to know, disturbed the quietude of Glendale about 7:30 Thursday evening and aroused temporary interest though no sign of fire reddened the sky. In explanation fire department officials report it was a call to extinguish a blaze which enveloped the automobile of Alfred Priest, the architect, at Central and Lexington Drive. When the chemical truck and the auto of Fire Chief Lankford arrived, the fire had been put out by the use of a garden hose and there was no serious damage to the machine. The cause of the conflagration was not known. Mr. Priest's home is at 1422 North Central avenue.

OPPOSE GERMAN CONSOLIDATION

PARIS FEARS UNION OF GERMAN-AUSTRIA AND GERMANY AS RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF TEUTON PRESTIGE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
Copenhagen, March 21.—Numerous dispatches arriving here from Paris agree that the Allies are strongly opposed to the proposed union of Germany and German-Austria. Some advices indicate that the Allies will ask Germany to abandon the plan when the preliminary peace is signed. Paris regards the proposed union as a scheme to re-establish Teutonic prestige.

The latest advices from Vienna say that the bill for the incorporation of German-Austria with Germany has passed its third reading. The measure already has passed the German national assembly.

STRAW VOTE ON LEAGUE OF NATIONS IN OREGON YIELDS 23,872 FOR AND 137 AGAINST

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
Portland, Oregon, March 21.—The "Portland Evening Journal" has taken a state-wide straw vote on the League of Nations. The result was 23,872 for the league and 137 against.

ONE-MAN STREET CARS

RECEIVE TACIT APPROVAL WHEN PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMITTEE TABLES BILL REQUIRING TWO-MAN CARS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
Sacramento, March 21.—The Assembly public utility committee today approved the "one-man" street cars now being used in several cities. A bill requiring street car companies to have at least two men on each car was tabled by the committee.

WILL GERMANY REFUSE TO SIGN?

BRITISH OFFICIALS CONSIDER POSSIBILITY, BUT DO NOT STATE WHAT SAFEGUARDS WILL BE TAKEN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
Paris, March 21.—It was learned authoritatively today that British officials are considering the probability that Germany will refuse to sign the preliminary peace. These officials believe there is a possibility that the Germans will come to the parley, receive the terms and then refuse to sign, saying: "Do what you want about it."

What safeguards will be taken is not known, as it has been impossible to learn what the Allies plan to do under such circumstances.

A Paris news agency says it is informed by Colonel House that the preliminary treaty, including the League of Nations covenant, will be ready for the Germans by March 29, and that the German delegates are expected to arrive in Paris within three weeks.

The sessions of the peace delegates today were devoted to the consideration of the views of neutral nations on the League of Nations constitution. Switzerland urged that the league recognize the declaration of 1815 guaranteeing the integrity of Switzerland, which declaration is regarded as the European "Monroe Doctrine."

ENGLAND DOES NOT WANT GERMAN SHIPS

IF THAT FLEET IS DIVIDED AMONG THE ALLIES, SHE WILL SINK HER SHARE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
London, March 22.—Naval authorities here declared today that if France and Italy insist on dividing the German fleet among the Allies, England will consent, but will sink her share immediately. They declare it would be too expensive to retain the armament and equipment of the German fleet, and that the guns would require special ammunition.

Authorities predict that Italy and France, in the interest of naval efficiency, will agree to the sinking of the German fleet.

WINERIES TO ASK FOR RULING

STOCKTON GRAPE GROWER GOES TO WASHINGTON TO SEE IF THEY MAY MAKE WINE THIS YEAR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Stockton, March 21.—Lewis Wetmore, a prominent grape grower, will leave soon for Washington to secure a government ruling as to whether wineries will be permitted to make wine this year, if they do not sell it unless the President issues a proclamation cancelling the war-time prohibition law.

TRUSTEES' MEETING

ORANGE STREET PROPERTY OWNERS PETITION FOR OPENING OF STREET

The Board assembled at 8 p. m., March 20, 1919. Present at roll call Trustees Henry, Muhleman, Shaw, Woodberry. Absent Trustee Jackson. The reading of the minutes was deferred.

The application of C. A. Beeson & Son for permit to operate auto trucks for freight service between Los Angeles and Lancaster through the City of Glendale was taken up at this meeting and on motion of Trustee Muhleman a permit was granted for a period of one year from date, subject to such restrictions and regulations as the Board of Trustees may see fit to impose.

The application of the Santa Paula Rural Motor Express to operate motor express service between points in the Santa Clara Valley and Los Angeles, California, over streets of the City of Glendale, was taken up and on motion of Trustee Shaw the same was granted for a period of one year from date, subject to such restrictions and regulations as the Board of Trustees may see fit to impose.

Application was received from Wesley Hunefelt for permission to operate a motor bus in the City of Glendale, which being approved by the city manager, was, on motion of Trustee Shaw, granted.

Arthur Brown appeared before the Board and presented a petition asking that the Board of Trustees begin proceedings for the opening and widening of Orange street, between Milford street and Lexington Drive, sign.

ORIENTAL MASONRY

Quite a delegation from Unity Masonic Lodge motored to Los Angeles Wednesday evening to the French Masonic Lodge to witness the putting on of first degree work according to Ancient Oriental Masonry that being the only organization in this part of the world where this exceedingly interesting form of Masonic rites can be seen. Those who went declare it was a very beautiful and impressive ritual. The party included Messrs. Naudain, Hinckel, Lewis, Jones and Goodwin and Dr. Steelman.

DINNER AND THEATRE PARTY

Members of a certain informal dancing club which has frequent and very delightful meetings, are varying their program this week by journeying to Los Angeles Saturday evening where they will dine at Christopher's at seven o'clock and then spend the evening at the Orpheum. The party will include Messrs. and Mesdames Warren Roberts, V. M. Hollister, Edw. M. Lynch, F. J. Kuntzner, A. W. Tanner, R. M. Brown, F. D. McClinton, E. R. Naudain, A. D. Cross, H. H. Parker and H. H. Martin.

HUMAN INTEREST TALES

SALVATION ARMY TALKS AT ELKS' CLUB WILL INCLUDE MANY PATHETIC INCIDENTS

The work of the Salvation Army from the personal side will be eloquently presented at the Elks' Club tonight by Major Louise Coggeshall of the Maternity Home and by Major William H. Gooding of the Men's Industrial Home of Los Angeles, and they will have much of human interest to tell which will rival in appeal the story of the woman in one of the institutions maintained by the Salvation Army in this state who will remain there until July 1st. Her life has been unfortunate. The battle against an influence stronger than her will had been fought and lost, not once but many times.

When July 1st rolls around and prohibition is in effect she will try again. The women of the Salvation Army are giving her the love and attention she has needed. They are making her life bright while she remains in the institution.

She has been there before. It has been her refuge when the insatiable craving has possessed her. Always she has been welcomed. It is the way with Salvationists. Now, with prohibition, with the cause of her downfall removed, she will try again.

It illustrates just one feature of the work which Salvationists are doing and the public never hears about. To maintain this work and to make it possible to extend it a state-wide drive for funds will be made in California during the week of March 24th to 31st.

It will be open house at the Elks' Club tonight and everybody is invited.

NOT ON YOUR LIFE

AMERICAN SOLDIERS NOT CONTENTED TO REMAIN IN SERVICE NOW WAR IS OVER

A Glendale boy in France recently sent home a clipping from a French paper that is printed in English, which he said was exciting great indignation among the boys. It purported to be an interview with an American captain in which he stated that this stuff about the soldiers being homesick, tired of war and eager to return to America was all untrue.

He said the great majority of the boys were delighted with the life and wanted to stay just as long as would be allowed, even if it was two or three years. They were well and regularly fed, getting much better fare than they were used to at their own tables, they were better dressed than at home and most of them really made better wages than they were able to earn in the good old U. S.

He said the officers, especially, were mighty well satisfied with their jobs and salary and that very few of the boys would relish going back to the coarse food and wear they had to put up with at home. These amazing declarations of the officer, whose name was given, drew forth hot denials from all the soldiers who read it. They said that possibly some of the officers would like to hang on to their salaries running up into the thousands, but as for the private soldiers, the $30 per, the mud and snow and freezing weather of France, the monotonous bill of fare and the well-worn, cootie-infested, shivery clothing, were infinitely worse than the humblest home in America afforded. They are entirely willing for the captain to remain in France if he so wishes, but not in command of them.

A GUEST FROM THE EAST

Rev. L. William Hones of Roscoe, New York, is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sipple of 1239 East Harvard street. He was their pastor when they were residents of Roscoe and they are delighted to see him again. He will be here for several days. He came west to officiate at the wedding of his son in Salt Lake City and after that pleasant event he came on to see his old friends here. It is his first trip to California and he is delighted with what he is seeing.

THINGS NOT WANTED

To correct any misconceptions in the minds of persons intending to contribute to the clothing drive for destitute French and Belgian peoples which the Red Cross is putting on next week all over the United States, and in which Glendale will participate, Mrs. Hartley Shaw, who is one of the directors of the drive, has asked the Evening News to publish the following list of articles which are NOT WANTED and which donors are asked to refrain from sending:

Ball dresses, flimsy dresses, high hats, straw hats, derby hats, hat trimmings, feathers, umbrellas, clocks, glassware, carpets, collars, neckties, shoe trees, crutches and canes, parasols, pillows, crockery, rags. Givers are also requested not to send food, nor shoes which are past the stage of easy repair.

VICTORY CAMPAIGN

DRIVE WILL TAKE PLACE SUN-DAY WITH NINE GROUPS OF CAPTAINED WORKERS

Tonight there is a "kick-off" meeting for the Victory Fund campaign of the Tropico Presbyterian Church, which will be held at the home of F. C. Richardson, corner of Central and Cypress avenues.

Sunday will be the big day of the drive. The Sunday morning service will be a charge to the workers and a consecration of their work. Sunday afternoon nine groups of canvassers and their captains will go out to cover the field and all members of the church not engaged in the drive will be asked to be at home between the hours of two and five p. m. The apportionment for the Tropico Church is $1,000 for benevolences and $2,000 for local church expenses. The whole amount to be raised by Presbyterian Churches is $39,000.00, which they expect to secure in the three hours' campaign. During that period 130,000 workers will be making the canvass. The evening service will be a testimony meeting and report of local work.

The quota for benevolences is about one hundred per cent. of an increase over what the church has been giving but Mr. Rider, the pastor, believes it will be raised. It will represent 19c per member per week or about $10 a year for benevolences.

FORT MACARTHUR ALREADY A BACK NUMBER

As showing the giant strides made in scientific inventions during the period of the war, Secretary of War Baker stated during his brief visit in Los Angeles that vast changes were necessary at Fort MacArthur, as it is already obsolete, though finished less than two years ago in accordance with designs then up-to-date. Larger guns, new emplacements for them, and entirely different fort construction will be necessary.

THOUGHT AND ACTION

"The end of life," said Emerson, "is an action and not a thought," which leads us to remark how much importance we give to the thought and forget the corresponding action. This very thought of Emerson is worth nothing unless it culminates in a deed. And the lesson now is, never to have a thought that does not originate or culminate in action. A thought apart from action is of no worth. Thinking well and refusing to do well is destructive of character. Teach that philosophy at school, if you understand it, gentle teacher, and if you don't, stay home and wash wishes. Saying nice things and doing poor ones is the calamity of life, from which we should all pray to be freed.—Ohio State Journal.

NO TIME FOR PARTISANSHIP

In this critical epoch in the world's history it behoves none of us here in America to show partisanship in discussing the vital questions now facing us. The League of Nations will affect all alike, if incorporated into our organic law, and we should discuss it, not as Republicans, Democrats or Prohibitionists, but as Americans. The Evening News, in all its discussions of the measure, has sought to eliminate all thoughts of party, giving the views of Republican and Democratic leaders, not as partisans, but as Americans. We have supreme faith in the sound common sense of the American people and firmly believe that the full and free discussion of the question, bitter and rancorous as it is at times, will lead to the enactment of a safe, reasonable measure that will insure peace to the world.

READING AS A NARCOTIC

The habit of reading for amusement becomes with thousands of people exactly the same kind of habit as wine drinking or opium smoking; it is like a narcotic, something that helps to pass the time, something that keeps up a perpetual condition of dreaming, something that eventually results in destroying all capacity for thought, giving exercise only to the surface parts of the mind, and leaving the deeper springs of feeling and the higher faculties of perception unemployed.

The result of all this reading means nothing but a cloudiness in the mind. That is the direct result. The indirect result is that that mind has been kept from developing itself. All development necessarily means some pain, and such reading as I speak of has been employed unconsciously as a means to avoid that pain, and the consequence is atrophy.—Lefcadio Hearn.

EVERY MAN'S DUTY

It is the solemn duty of every man in America to study with all the power of his brain and heart the proposed League of Nations as deeply as he studies the problems of his own individual salvation from eternal damnation. He who fails to study in this spirit, and entirely without regard to what any man or any paper may say for or against it, is recreant to his duty to God and man. If he honestly feels that this league should be formed, it is his duty to favor it, if in doing so he has to break away from all party affiliations or from personal friendships.

If he honestly believes that this country should not enter such a league, it is his solemn duty to oppose it, even if in doing so he goes contrary to his party ties and to his dearest friendships. He who is not willing in such a tremendous issue, the most far-reaching in the history of civilization, to seek only to know the truth and follow it, regardless of where it leads, is false to all the centuries to come.—Monrovia News.

GOT OFF BETTER THAN WE DESERVED

Perhaps, instead of all this clamor about waste, extravagance, graft and incompetence, we should congratulate ourselves that we got off as well as we did. Secretary of War Baker made many mistakes, he permitted long delays in the manufacture of munitions, planes and ordnance, but really he accomplished a stupendous task, considering his utter unfitness for the job. He was opposed to the war, he knew nothing about how to conduct it or finance it. He is undoubtedly a high-minded gentleman, but not the one to look after the wants of 3,000,000 men under arms. Had a man bred to arms, used to high command and with a knowledge of equipping and maintaining large bodies of men—such a man as General Leonard Wood, for instance—been appointed as Secretary of War, how different would the tale have been. Why will not our Presidents, in such critical times in the life of the nation, use the sound business sense of the merchant or manufacturer? Neither would think for a moment of putting over a department of his business a manager who knew not the first principles of that business. President Lincoln is the only one of our executives who disregarded party lines in the selection of his cabinet, appointing men on merit instead of partisanship. May we never have another war, but if we are so unfortunate, it is to be hoped there will be a soldier at the head of the war department and a naval officer at the head of the navy department.

GOOD AND BAD NEWS

CHANGES IN TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB PROGRAMS PROMISE MANY ATTRACTIONS

Mrs. Freeman Kelley reports a great disappointment for members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club in the news just received that Miss Zona Gale, who was to have furnished the program for "Authorless Day," March 25th, decided not to spend the winter in California as has been her custom because the weather has been exceptionally mild in the east and she therefore will be unable to meet her California engagements. In stead a big musical production will be put on, viz., the "Opid Trio," consisting of piano, cello and violin. It is considered the finest organization in its line in Southern California. The program will be of the sort that most pleases club members and it will be good day on which to use guest cards. Between the musical numbers a baby pupil in the Pearl Keller School will give solo dances.

Mrs. Kelley softens her bad news with the announcement that a surprise treat is in store for "Drama Day," when Marian Craig Wentworth, authoress and playwright, will give before the club her "Bonfires of All Nations." It was the biggest event of the Los Angeles Ebell program last year and the Glendale program committee considers it quite a feather in its cap to secure such talent.

Another good thing in prospect is the social evening April 8th when husbands and brothers of members will be entertained also the Glendale soldier and sailor boys who have returned from U. S. camps and from overseas.

The District Convention at Hollywood will be on the 8th, 9th and 10th of next month and members who wish to go as delegates are requested to report to the president, Mrs. W. W. Ramsey, at the meeting next Tuesday.

Every Man is a Wise Man

Because every man has something to teach; the thing life through experience hastaughtimodo.

Nature but reproduces: man's experience taking the world where Nature stops builds it better; whether, he makes an iron plow to improve the crooked stick—

Or turns mere rubber and cotton into pneumatic tires.

Experience is that unseen thing intires, the quality of which turns them out good or bad.

It vouches for Goodrich experience that Goodrich made the first American pneumatic tire, and ever since has fathered the improvement of automobile tires.

It shows in burly, full-rounded bodies, and thicker BLACK SAFETY TREADS, extra wide, fortifying the sidewall against rut scraping.

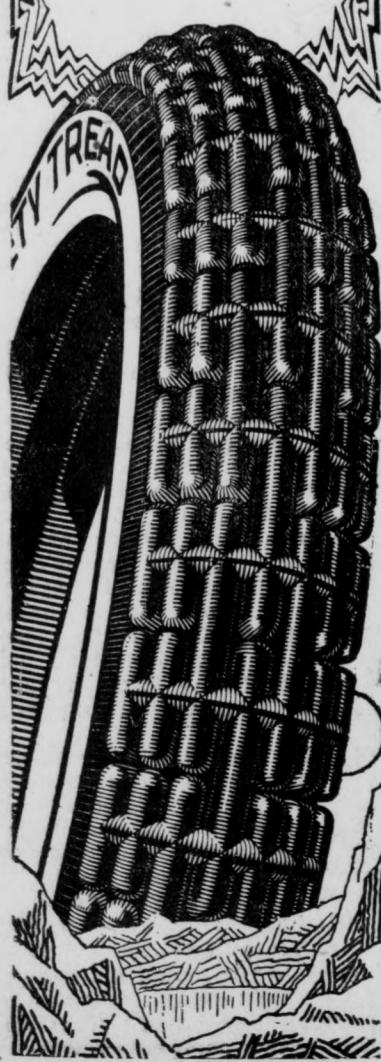

It returns value for your money in service value on your car on the road.

On the platform were seated Alexander Mitchell, president of the Glendale organization, Mrs. W. W. Ramsey, Mrs. Dora Gibson, Mrs. Charles Parker, Mrs. Charles Temple, Richardson D. White, Miss Graeff, Wm. C. Barrot of Los Angeles.

Stationed at the door to greet and assist in seating those who came were Blake Franklin and Mrs. Ella Richardson.

Before the contest opened President Mitchell made a short speech of welcome to Hollywood representatives in which he indulged in some characteristic joshing of Glendale's neighbors, which was taken in good part and he then paid his tribute to community singing, a great unifier of sentiment and means of promoting patriotism. He referred to the pending League of Nations and said: "The man who declared 'the world is my home—humanity my creed,' expressed all that was typified in the life of the lowly Nazarene." He informed the visitors that the Greater Glendale Development Association is undertaking to promote a civic center which will contain a community auditorium capable of holding 2,000 and that a year hence he hoped to have the pleasure of welcoming the Hollywood chorus—1,000 strong—to that auditorium. (Applause). He assured them after the courage they had shown in breasting the storm he would like to see Hollywood singers win, but if they did not carry off the prize, they would nevertheless retain our esteem.

To get chorus and audience well warmed up, a verse of "America" was sung and "Howdy Do," and then the contest program was carried out, in the singing by the choruses in turn of verses of "My Bonnie," "Old Folks at Home," "Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes," "Dixie Land," "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "Old Black Joe." The verses were first sung with piano accompaniment, each chorus having its own accompanist, Mrs. Jacobson playing for Hollywood and Mrs. L. N. Hagood for Glendale. After the verse had been sung the chorus was repeated without accompaniment and then hummed without accompaniment.

The applause which greeted the singing of "My Bonnie" and "Old Folks at Home" by Hollywood singers testified to the admiration of the audience for their excellent work and it seemed for a time as though they would secure all the votes of the judges, but Glendaleans warmed up and in later numbers did themselves proud.

While the audience was waiting for scores to be compared and counted, Miss Graeff addressed it telling of her delight in the evening's performance, what a joy it was to hear such melody, and to witness the happy facial expressions of singers. She then described some phases of the community singing movement in Cleveland, how there "the people who do not sing" had been called together to practice on the patriotic songs of all nations, and astonishingly good work they had done under instruction and leadership, thoroughly enjoying the exercise.

Mr. Barron followed with words of appreciation, speaking as one having authority. He is a composer of some note, and was for years connected with the musical conservatory at London, Ontario. He called attention to some of the faults or "blemishes" of the chorus work which he assured the singers could be overcome by attention to the instruction of the leader, and said he could hardly believe when he heard them singing that they had not had long instruction as a choir.

Mr. Shank then reported for the judges, enumerating the five points which they were instructed to consider, attack, enunciation, quality, attention and facial expression.

The work done, he declared, was astonishingly good, especially in view of the limited number of rehearsals the Glendale chorus had. In the matter of quality and enunciation there seemed little choice between the two organizations, but in facial expression Glendale scored. Hollywood, on the other hand, showed the best attention and had therefore won by three points, the score reading Hollywood 288 out of a possible 300, and Glendale 285.

The report was greeted by prolonged applause which showed the entire accord of the big audience in the verdict, and Mr. Mitchell voiced the sentiment in more unmistakable fashion promising that Glendale would visit Hollywood about six weeks hence with five hundred singers and bring back the prize which it was so glad to bestow tonight on the vocalists of its sister community.

The entire audience then united in the singing of the first verse of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic." The group on the platform was called upon by Mr. Kirchoffer to sing the second verse, which it did in a spirited manner that merited the spontaneous applause received. Then all united in an enthusiastic rendition of "Star-Spangled Banner" and the evening of song ended.

The desire of Canada and Australia to associate with other nations on a basis of equality seems more a condescension than an ambition.

A full house greeted the entertainers at the Club House March 17th, the anniversary of the founding of the colony. Nearly every place was taken at the tables, and later every inch of room was occupied by those who wished to listen to the program, and discussion of the water question. Following supper the chairman, Mr. Ashby, gave a short talk on "The Founding and Growth of the Colony," and also many reminiscences of the past six years. The singing of "America," "The Wearing of the Green" and "All Those Enduring Young Charms" was under the leadership of Rev. W. H. Wieman. The committee through Mr. Kirshman reported progress in regard to the water question, and were continued until they should receive more definite information from Los Angeles. Discussion in regard to annexation was fully discussed by many in the large audience both for and against. The meeting then closed with a vote of thanks for the ladies who had charge of the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miles who have been living in Glendale the past two years have again moved back to their home on lower Stephens Way.

Mrs. Maygrove and daughter, Gladys, and Constance, were in attendance at the anniversary, guests of Mrs. Lang.

Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Labrecht were at Long Beach on Sunday, attending service in the morning and calling on Mr. and Mrs. Steen in the afternoon.

The ladies of Tujunga sent a large box and package of clothing to the Parent-Teachers' Association last week in response to the urgent call for clothing.

Work is still being done for Red Cross at Bolton Hall every Tuesday, and more help is needed.

Mr. McCue, who has been in Imperial Valley for some time, returned home last week.

Mr. Shay of Gardena was a weekend guest of Mrs. Hoffman, returning on Tuesday.

Capt. H. F. Hatch and daughter are soon to leave for Fort Casey, most beautifully located on an island in Puget Sound, where they will join the Captain's son, Major H. S. Hatch, who is in command of that Fort. The insurance business conducted by Capt. Hatch has been purchased by M. H. Osgood, who will maintain an office in the Haines Canyon Water Co.'s building.

The next meeting of the Woman's Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Darlington on Stephens Way, March 27th, at 2:30 p. m. A study and discussion of Political Economy will be taken up first, followed by a paper on "The Monroe Doctrine," read by Mrs. Linnaberry.

Rev. William Campbell of Los Angeles was the guest of Henry Grauel of Perlita avenue Thursday.

George E. Williams and family have moved from 109 West Lomita avenue to 1259 Boynton street, which is quite a change of neighborhood and a very beautiful situation.

Sharp frosts the past few nights are causing uneasiness among gardeners who have ventured early plantings of corn and set out tomato plants.

Mrs. B. Dudley Snudden will be the week-end guest of Mrs. H. D. Goss of 510 East Harvard street, and Mrs. Goss will be glad to have her old friends call upon her there.

The Southern California Home Board of the W. C. T. U. will hold its annual meeting Thursday, March 27th, at the Temperance Temple in Los Angeles at 1:30 p. m.

Lieut. Rochester, the doctor son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Rochester, whose arrival they have been eagerly anticipating, has reached Glendale. He has had some thrilling army service overseas, and will have some wonderful experiences to tell them about.

Mr. and Mrs. Wash Hunt entertained a few friends at a little dinner Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Mussette, of Victor, Iowa, who are leaving for their home. Covers were also laid for Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Mrs. Border and Miss Myra Bartlett.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Phelon left Friday of this week with an auto load of household furniture for their summer ranch beyond Victorville. They expect to be absent about six months, Mr. Phelon having been granted a vacation by the Southern California Gas Company for that length of time.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Central Methodist Church will have charge of the evening program Sunday night, March 23d, at the church. The choir will furnish special music and there will be saxophone numbers by Miss Schout. Miss M. E. Mendenhall of Whittier will deliver the address.

A special invitation is being extended to every returned soldier and sailor to attend the meeting at the Elks' Club this evening and boost for the Salvation Army. Many of these boys have personally benefited by the war service of this organization and will be glad to testify to its unselfish work. They are, therefore, urged to come.

Joe Griffin of Acacia avenue was a guest Tuesday evening at a banquet of the Credit Men's Association served at the Jonathan Club in Los Angeles, at which the chief after-dinner speeches were made by Judge Taft and Professor Burt of U. S. C. Their main theme was the duty of merchants to give employment to returning soldiers.

Dr. E. H. Willisford will give an address on his oversea experiences at the First Congregational Church of Pasadena Sunday evening. Dr. D. F. Fox, so well and favorably known in Glendale, is pastor of this church. Dr. Dans Bartlett of Los Angeles will speak in the Glendale Congregational church Sunday evening. Dr. Bartlett has many friends in Glendale. For many years he has been one of the foremost religious and social workers in Los Angeles.

Friends of Mrs. Elmer J. Jackson of 1305 South Glendale avenue will learn with concern that she is confined to her bed by serious illness. She has been ailing for a year or more and they came here last October from Bardolph, Illinois, in the hope that her health would improve under more favorable climatic conditions. Mr. Jackson purchased the Overland Agency from A. Meyer and they made arrangements to establish their permanent home here.

Mrs. Edward M. Lynch was hostess at a very prettily appointed yellow and white luncheon served at her home, 807 South Maryland avenue, Thursday, at which covers were laid for fourteen. Jonquils centered the table and served as dinner favors. Narcissi, acacia and marigolds were effectively used in the floral decoration of the rooms in which the guests were entertained. Yellow and white featured the menu, the place cards and the nut baskets, and proved how attractive such a color motif can be made when judiciously and consistently carried out. The ladies who gathered around the board were: Mesdames Wilbur McFadden, H. P. Goodwin, Emil Tholen, Warren Roberts, John Huntley, A. W. Tower, W. E. Evans, Homer Temple, A. D. Pearce, Ashley Whipple, Walter Stamps, M. L. Russell, Harry Lynch, and the hostess.

The afternoon was devoted to "Five Hundred," Mrs. Goodwin capturing the prize for the highest score.

Will have rehearsal Monday evening, March 24th, at 7:30. The Mark Masters' Degree will be given Wednesday evening, March 26th, 7:30.

Chas. E. Peck, the jeweler, is moving today from 712 S. Pacific Ave. to the house he traded that property for, at 114 S. Louise.

TROPICO'S LIGHTING

SYSTEM TAKEN OVER AND PURCHASE MONEY PASSED AT MEETING THURSDAY NIGHT

Glendale took over the electric lighting system of Tropico district paying for it $35,282 last night and the city now owns and operates the plant. Copper wire and a variety of equipment needed in connection with the plant is now being purchased. It will still be operated for a time under the old Edison sub-station as it will take until about the first of July to connect it with the city's plant because some of the equipment required before the final physical connections can be made will have to be manufactured for the city in the east.

WE MUST NOT FORGET

One of the most marked of the many tests of character is the manner in which we "play the game" of life—in which we conduct ourselves toward others.

This refers not alone to our honesty and truthfulness, but primarily to our feelings and actions toward others. Trying to "get square" with some one is not the sort of thing that helps a girl who is striving to stand for something in the business world. So long as she harbors hard feelings, jealousy or unkindly thoughts toward another, she is giving shelter to enemies of her own peace of mind, and consequently retarding her advancement. These enemies poison her brain, sap her vitality and take from her the energy and power which she is bound to need for her daily task.

It is a fact that business tries character and often puts to the severest test honesty, truthfulness and justice, but every business woman should make it her daily rule to be large, generous and charitable; determined to forget petty slights or injuries and remember that most people are kind at heart and would not intentionally injure her. If she tries always to put a charitable interpretation on other people's motives, if she is cheerful, kind and helpful, no matter what others may say or do, she will be surprised at the effect it will have, not only upon herself, but upon those with whom she is daily associated.

Try training the mind to believe in the principle of justice. Form the habit of viewing the other person's motives with the same generosity that you show to yourself. You will find that to the extent you yourself are just will justice be meted out to you.

In the living of our daily lives, and particularly the daily lives of women in business, many trying problems are involved, but to the girl who is earnest and energetic such a life is an exciting and interesting experience, and she who studies the game and plays it fair is worthy of all honor and is certain to reap a large measure of success.

PLAYING FAIR

With the coming of peace there will be a tendency to forget what the boys have done in this war. "Already a uniform looks different," says a cynic from a neighboring city—and to him it probably does. But to the great mass of Americans it does not, and must not. We must not allow our ardor for the soldiers to cool off; they are still our soldiers. They are entitled to all the consideration, to all the love and affection they would be entitled to if the war were going on at this very moment.

But it must be confessed there is a tendency to forget. Few of us remember the bridge which bore us across the stream, after we have safely crossed over. In the heat of battle, in the thick about us—when the menace is before our eyes—we make many promises. We are going to do, oh, ever so much for those who rescue us. But no sooner has the battle ceased, and the smoke cleared away, than we begin losing our enthusiasm for our saviors. These long casualty lists that are being printed from day to day ought to open our eyes to what we owe these soldiers; they ought to fasten in our minds forever the meaning of the uniform.

It cannot be expected that we remain keyed up in our excitement. The martial music does not sound so inspiring when it is known there is no enemy to be met. But, deep down in our hearts, we can resolve that we shall not forget the uniform, nor treat it with any less respect when a peace treaty is signed than we did in the dark days when the boys went marching away.—Columbus Dispatch.

LITERARY SECTION

The Literary Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club met at the home of the Curator, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Tuesday afternoon, for a study of Russia. Mrs. Edgar Leavitt gave an interesting talk on the geography of the country and the founding of St. Petersburg. Mrs. Williford read a paper on the characteristics of the people and Mrs. Bartlett an article on Ukraine.

The section is enjoying its study of countries with which it is not as familiar as it would like to be and members are very faithful in attendance.

Capt. Hones, of Salt Lake City, wrote that he was about to commit matrimony and wanted Dad to tie a safe knot for him, he decided to cut loose from business and have a short play spell. So he embarked on his travels, saw to it that the new daughter was legally and properly inducted into the Hones family, then, when the new-made bridegroom was suddenly ordered to Vancouver Barracks, he decided that it was absolutely necessary for him to escort the young couple to their new home. Thus he extended his visit to the Pacific Coast and while out here qualified as a rain maker. Leaving San Francisco 26 days ago he visited Portland, Seattle and other northwest cities, then came down by boat to Los Angeles. There were but 24 rainy days of the 26 occupied by the trip. When he arrived in Los Angeles the whole Southland was bathed in sunshine, but he had hardly reached Glendale until the floods again descended. Rev.

Hones is an animated talker along original lines. His facial expression is very similar to Roosevelt's and his broad smile and striking gestures add to the illusion. He is delighted with Glendale and we have no doubt that were Aladdin's lamp still in working order, Roscoe, N. Y., and the Sullivan County Review would be transported bodily to the San Fernando Valley.
